Dear Mr Greer,

Thank you for your recent PQ S5W-20219: "To ask the Scottish Government, further to written answer S5W-18507 by Ivan McKee on 28 September 2018, whether it will provide details of Scottish Enterprise's support to Raytheon for the purposes of diversification into non-military, civilian markets, including what specific projects were funded, what criteria they were assessed against, and what specific products or services by Raytheon were supported by this funding."

This was referred to Scottish Enterprise as an operational matter and I am pleased to provide you with the relevant information.

The table below provides a detailed breakdown of our funding support to the company to date:

Project Name	Total
2007 Supply Chain Support	£11,750
2013 Strategic Development for Civilian Markets	£3,215
2014 Strategic Development for Civilian Markets	£26,100
2014 Market Development - Technology and Engineering	£1,700
2014 Market Development - Tech & Engineering Trade	£16,656
2017 Facilities Management Project	£91,009
2018 Consultancy Support for potential Civilian Aviation Project	£4,800
2018 Feasibility Study to Support Strategic Diversification	£45,360
	£200,590

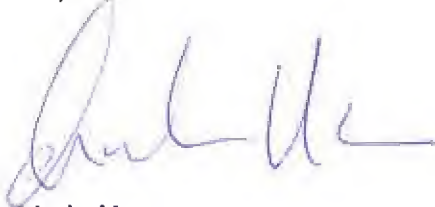

None of the above projects supported any product or service in munitions.

Funding provided to Raytheon is subject to our standard terms and every payment made to the company is processed only on receipt of satisfactory evidence of agreed spend.

For your information, we have enclosed Scottish Enterprise's standard grant terms and conditions and a copy of our evidence requirements required when claiming grant payments.

I trust the above is helpful to you but should you require any further information or wish to discuss in greater detail please do get in touch.

Yours sincerely,

Linda Hanna
